Declare Body Blow Is Dealt To Prohibition

BOOZE FLOODGATES MAY BE OPENED AS DECISION'S RESULT ON 'STORED LIQUOR'

Officials Hasten to Study Opinion of the Nation's Highest Tribunal.

INTERSTATE SITUATION STILL NOT MADE CLEAR

Court Holds That Whiskey May Be Withdrawn at Owner's Option.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—The whiskey floodgate may be opened by the Supreme court decision regarding whiskey held in storage. Large stocks of whiskey, remaining in bonded warehouses, may be released by this decision, it was stated today. Certificates showing the holding of whiskey in bonded warehouses and evidence of its ownership are apparently vitally affected.

The court, in passing upon a New York case, did not deal specifically with warehouse certificates, but it was made plain that whiskey, owned and stored for personal use, may be withdrawn and moved by the owner at his option. The decision may deal a body blow at prohibition, it was stated today. Prohibition Commissioner Kramer and Internal Revenue Commissioner Williams are studying the decision with a view of determining its effects.

In effect, the court states that whiskey stored by an owner, who acquired it legally and does not hold it for any illegal use may take it out and transport it at any time. In this New York case it was not made plain whether an owner could move his liquor, so stored, across state boundaries in interstate commerce.

PRESIDENT MAKES APPEAL FOR RED X IN ITS 'ROLL CALL'

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—The following message from President Wilson, who is also President of the American Red Cross, to the American people, was issued from the White House today:

"The American Red Cross deserves a hearty response to its fourth invitation to annual membership, which will be issued during the fortnight beginning November 11 (Armistice Day).

"Under the stimulus of war and through the co-operation of our people, this organization grew into immense size, enlarged its range of activity, served not only our fighting forces, but also civilians in the hardships of war in our own nation and in the nations associated with us in a great common enterprise, and gave to the world an example of effective mercy through co-ordinated effort.

"Since the cessation of hostilities the organization has faced a dual duty: first, to fulfill the needs created by the war, and, secondly, to adapt its experience and machinery to the needs of peace.

"It is today still assisting government agencies in the care and cheer of our disabled soldiers and sailors, in replacing those able to work in civilian occupations and in counselling and aiding the families of former combatants; and it is still assisting, with diminished resources, the process of rehabilitation in some of the more prostrated countries of our former associates.

FISHERMEN CONTENT FOR CHANCE TO LEND BOATS

Marine Detachment Policies Point Isabel, Where New Executive is Residing.

(International News Service)
WITH PRESIDENT-ELECT HARDING, POINT ISABEL, Nov. 9.—President-elect Harding today went forth to give battle to tarpons in the waters of the gulf of Mexico. The entire population of this quaint little fishing town in the southernmost part of the United States gathered in wondering amazement at the wharf to watch the party sail and there was considerable conjecture among the Mexican fishermen as to the possible fishing luck of the distinguished visitor.

Rival fishermen have contended for the honor of loaning their boats to the President-elect, but Governor Hobby of Texas, has dispatched a state boat to Point Isabel for use of the visitor.

A detachment of United States marine have been stationed here and are policing the town. It was announced today that Senator Harding will sail on a United Fruit steamer from the New Orleans, November 18, for Panama.

AMERICA DECLINES TO JOIN BLOCKADE

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—The United States has definitely declined to take part in a blockade of the Black Sea ports against Soviet Russia with England and France, Secretary of State Colby announced today. He declared that there existed no cause for America to join the blockade as we were not at war with the Russian people.

"BEAT HUNTSVILLE" IS CRY OF THE PURPLE AND GOLD ELEVEN

Albany High Determined to Take Scalps of Ancient Rivals.

"Beat Huntsville" is the cry of the Purple and Gold eleven at the Albany high school. The ancient rivals get together for the first time this season at the local park Friday afternoon and, despite the loss of the Sheffield game, the locals are determined to take the scalp of the Huntsville squad.

For years the local school and Huntsville have been athletic rivals. For the first time in the history of the two institutions, Huntsville went down to defeat before the charge of an Albany eleven last year. Notwithstanding the later defeat of Albany by Huntsville, the dup of happiness of the Purple and Gold supporters was running over when the jinx was broken and Coach Templeton's crew was returned victor in the initial engagement.

SOAP AND SOCK ARE USED BY NORTHCUTT TO MAKE ESCAPE, HE IS ARRESTED AGAIN

Noted Prisoner Makes Second Get-Away From Morgan County Jail.

JANITOR STRUCK OVER HEAD WITH QUEER BILLY

Quick Appeal of Sheriff's Daughter Sends Officers on the Chase.

Eulice Northcutt, sentenced to 5 years on a charge of burglary in the Circuit court Monday, escaped from the Morgan County jail for the second time this morning but enjoyed a short lived period of liberty. He was recaptured 30 minutes later by Deputies Hamilton and Stewart and again lodged in the county bastille.

Northcutt used an old sock and two bars of soap to batter his way to freedom this morning shortly after 8:30 o'clock, when he struck the negro janitor at the jail with the "loaded" sock and took the jail keys.

Northcutt had placed the two bars of soap in the sock, making a heavy "billy," with which he dazed the janitor when the latter brought the prisoner's breakfast this morning.

Interesting Career
Northcutt has carved for himself a wide path in legal circles of Morgan County. Arrested on a charge of connection with the robbery of the Patterson store at Lacon, this county, he escaped from the county jail on April 23, 1919 after having gotten out of his cell and cut out a hole through the brick wall of the building.

Scaling the high fence about the building with the agility of a cat, it was an easy thing for Northcutt to make his get-away. He was recaptured in Birmingham several weeks ago and returned to Morgan County. Yesterday he was called before Judge Brickell, in the Circuit court here, and given his sentence.

Again he lost little time in accomplishing his escape. Mrs. Sturdivant, daughter of Sheriff May, heard the noise made by the assault on the janitor and due to her quick appeal for aid, the prisoner again was taken into custody within a short time.

Mrs. Sturdivant sent her appeal directly to the courthouse and officers responded on the double quick. Northcutt was traced and was rearrested on Railroad street behind the Lyons hotel.

WELLBORN AGAIN DECLARES AMPLE CREDIT BE GIVEN DIXIE'S FARMERS

Announcement of Federal Reserve Head Made Public by Local Bankers.

BANK LOANS INCREASED BY MORE THAN BILLION

Credit Not "Tight" District Bank Chief Says in Outline of Policy.

Farmers of the South will be extended ample credit for the orderly marketing of their cotton. This announcement, made by Governor M. B. Wellborn, of the Sixth District Federal Reserve bank, has been received here by local bankers.

Here is what he said on the subject: "Within a few months the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta, by its liberal policy to aid production, has financed the farmers through the member banks, and now we wish to assure the farmers ample credits to meet their requirements will be extended to them through the member banks for the gradual and orderly marketing of their crops.

"In the act which created the Federal Reserve system it was provided the farmer should have preference in point of time over other business paper. His notes run six months, while those in other lines are for ninety days. It is my belief this was intended to give him time, not only to make his crop, but to market it.

"I do not think there will be any dumping of cotton this year, if the banks and business men will stand by the farmer."

In further comment on the policy of the Federal Reserve Bank he said:

"Between January and October 1st of the present year about 70 percent of the banks which are members of the Federal Reserve system have increased their loans by an amount exceeding $1,800,000,000. This great increase has been made possible by the accommodations extended member banks by the Federal Reserve Banks. In our own district (Atlanta) since January, 1920, the Federal Reserve Bank loans have increased about $69,000,000. Does this look like contraction or that Federal Reserve Banks are 'shutting off' credits?

"Last spring our bank left the necessity of inaugurating a campaign for the control of credits, as the signs of the times indicated expansion of loans for luxuries was going too fast. We then found it necessary to call attention to the heavy burden of automobile credits that were being thrown upon our bank. We had no intention of striking a blow at the great automobile industry, but merely to discourage, and, if possible, to prohibit the reckless granting of credits to extravagant and imprudent purchasers of cars, who could ill afford to pay for and maintain the upkeep of an automobile. I think our position and action taken in this matter should be appreciated by all substantial dealers in automobiles who desire a sound and stable market for their goods.

"The Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta recognizes the great importance of the automobile industry and does not desire to discriminate against motor paper of the proper character, and is always ready to accept such paper from our member banks when it meets the requirements of our regulations, and seasonal conditions in our district."

Opinion Confirmed
Since this public statement was made by Governor Wellborn, Secretary H. G. Hester of the New Orleans Cotton Exchange, who has been recognized for a quarter of a century as an authority on the cotton situation, published a statement which strongly confirms Mr. Wellborn's position that the price of cotton has been depressed by an unreasoning scare that caused producers to dump on the market more than a million bales between the first of September and the middle of October.

Here's Chance to Sell Your Story

The Daily Offers Cash Prizes for Best News Accounts Developed by Young Writers. Must be Based on Facts.

Do you think you can write a newspaper story, or rather can you write one? It's the knack of word descriptive, put in concise, plain language. The Daily desires to develop writers, not necessarily for employment in this office, but engagement may be easily secured elsewhere if you can do it.

The Daily will give $5 for the best written story submitted for publication and $3 for the second best to any writer of twenty-one years of age or under.

A committee will be selected of capable judges and the two best "stories" will be awarded the amounts mentioned and publish them. This is done to encourage young writers to write on any subject they may elect and contest is open to all.

In preparing your copy, please bear in mind the following contest rules:

1. While the length of the story is not essential, those stories stating the facts briefly will be given first consideration. Brevity is one of the essentials of all news stories.

2. All stories must be based on FACTS. It is not the purpose of The Daily to receive fictitious stories of any character in this contest.

3. The contest opens today and ends Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock. All stories submitted for this contest must be in The Daily office not later than 5 p. m. Saturday, November 13. The prize winners will be published Monday.

4. No manuscripts will be returned. It is the plan of The Daily to publish a number of the available stories, together with the name of the writer.

5. In submitting stories sign your full name, as it is the intention of The Daily to publish the names of the writer with the story.

6. There is no limit on the number of stories you may submit. Pick out as many subjects as you care to write upon and send them all in.

7. No stories reflecting discredit on any person, firm or individual will be considered.

8. As an illustration of the kind of stories The Daily considers as excellent material in this contest, the following subjects are proposed: The number of prominent men who were born and reared in Somerville.

The growth of the Twin Cities as a cotton market and the expansion of the warehousing facilities here.

The value of farm products of Morgan county this year, acreage planted, etc.

SHRINERS COMING HERE FOR A SHORT VISIT WEDNESDAY

Several hundred visiting Shriners will be guests of the local club Wednesday when the Shriners of all North Alabama make a pilgrimage to Sheffield, where a large class will be accompanied across the hot sands.

The Shrine special from Birmingham will reach Albany shortly after ten o'clock. An exhibition by the patrol will be given on Grant street, after which the visitors will be entertained at lunch in the Malone garage. The lunch will be served by the ladies of the First Methodist church, Decatur.

The Shriners will parade to Decatur, give a drill on Bank street and enroute for Sheffield at 12:10.

MERCHANTS ASSO. NOT COMBINATION TO HOLD UP PRICE

That the Retail Merchants Association is not a combination to hold up prices was the message stressed last night by Jeff Bailey, state director, in an address to the members of the Albany branch.

On the other hand it is the duty of every merchant to dispose of his stock at prices as low as possible, Mr. Bailey declared.

The address of the state director followed a splendid luncheon in the rooms of the Albany chamber of commerce. The affair was in the nature of a get-together meeting and was largely attended.

BASEBALL'S THIRD BIG WAR STARTED WHEN NEW CIRCUIT OF 12 CLUBS BORN

Majors Split and Lasker Plan Will Govern the New Organization.

COMMITTEES RUSHED TO KANSAS CITY MEET

Aid of Minor Leagues is Being Sought by Both Factions.

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—Baseball's third big war is on in earnest today. The first brush of the conflict, following the declaration of war when eight clubs of the National league and three of the American league decided late yesterday to proceed with the organization of a new 12 club major league, to be governed in accordance with the Lasker plan, is to take place at Kansas City today.

A committee from the new National league body, consisting of Garry Herrmann, of Cincinnati; Barney Drefus, of Pittsburgh; Charles Ebbetts, of Brooklyn and Col. Jacob Ruppert, of New York, is en route to Kansas City today to submit to the minor league majors in session there, the proposals upon which the new organization will bid for minor league support.

Ban Johnson and his followers, likewise, have sent representatives to seek the support of the minors.

FIDDLERS CONTEST ON NOVEMBER 24

A committee meeting was held at the Masonic Theatre last night, for the purpose of devising means for putting on an Old Fiddler's Contest.

It was decided to hold the contest on the evening of November 24, beginning at 7 o'clock. It was agreed that the "Old Time Fiddlers" make their own rules and regulations—the sole requirement made of them, being that they are to furnish a first class entertainment. Plans were to keep the public fully informed, as to who the fiddlers are to be and what pieces they are expected to play.

JOSEPHUS DANIELS

Josephus Daniels, after enjoying a period of rest, again is the target at which Republican newspapers are shooting their verbal spleen. An attack from the New York Tribune is forcibly answered by The Montgomery Advertiser, but the Advertiser might have added that, while the end of the North Carolina's official connection with the Navy may bring rejoicing to The Tribune, it brings regret to thousands of enlisted men in the service.

Daniels, ever, was the friend of the enlisted men. Daniels is one of the best features of Naval service.

It would not be amiss to give an illustration on the attitude of the Secretary. During the war, an anonymous communication was forwarded to Washington regarding the treatment received by the crew of one of Uncle Sam's vessels. It took just three days for government red tape to be slashed into a thousand pieces and an admiral to arrive aboard that vessel for an investigation. Who sent him? Daniels! Of course the writer of that communication had no authority to complain directly to Washington, he should have taken his complaint through official channels. It is not hard to imagine what might have happened to the writer had a man, other than of Daniels' type, been secretary of the Navy.

Daniels is a he-man himself and it does not require gold braid for him to recognize the same elements in another human being.

The Advertiser, defending the Secretary, says: "The following editorial is from the New York Tribune, Republican."

Joy reigns in the navy! Only four months more of Daniels!

In his testimony before the Senate committee Josephus said that he had had "seven, happy years at the Navy Department, with just enough criticism to make it interesting." The happiness has been entirely his. The navy has had a seven-year nightmare.

People in civil life cannot realize the harm resulting from Daniels' rule. The personnel has been disrupted. Class has been arrayed against class. The personal friendships of a lifetime have often been destroyed. An undermining influence, appealing to the selfish and sordid side of human nature, has played havoc. Subserviency has been demanded and rewarded. Manliness and independence have been punished. Mediocrity has been put on a pedestal. Ability has often been sidetracked. Naval traditions have been wrecked.

But the navy will soon be its true self again as soon as Daniels goes home!

The New York Tribune never has been fair to Daniels. It has not even been sane in discussing him. But it is one of the few American papers that still hammer him and endeavor to cast him into outer darkness. Most American papers that are disposed to be fair in their consideration of public men, are ready to acknowledge that Mr. Daniels has made a far better Secretary of the Navy than he gave promise of making during the first two or three years of his administration of the department.

When Mr. Daniels went into the cabinet he was a pacifist who opposed the construction of a big navy. At the same time he ordered a number of innovations in the navy which stirred the risibilities of the fun-makers and unquestionably annoyed men and officers in the service. The first impression Daniels made upon the country was that he was a nambly-pamby Secretary of the Navy; who was determined to make every sailor a perfect lady.

But Mr. Daniels demonstrated that an honest man could change his mind about some things. Unlike his friend and former philosopher, W. J. Bryan, Daniels could face realities and admit that they were realities.

The year 1915 has not passed before Daniels became a champion of the greater navy idea. He threw all of his tremendous energy behind the movement first to convert the country and the Congress to the great navy idea. The conversion occurred, Congress appropriated the money for a greater navy and Daniels' Department proceeded to build the ships and the guns. When war came the navy was ready. All the world knows of the power and efficiency of the American navy in the struggle that ensued. Today we have the greatest navy the country ever had. It is second only to the navy of Great Britain, and larger than that many wise men believe it is not necessary to go.

Where Daniels won, where he silenced his critics—and they were legion at one time—was in his capacity for self-abnegation and his choice of advisers. He called about him the ablest technical men in the service and it appears now that he had the good sense to listen to them. Navy service today is more attractive to young men than it ever was before, due among other things, to the vocational training offered recruits. Another good thing about Daniels is that he has been a hard worker. He has been on the job and he has liked his job. The navy educated Daniels and made a better official of him than he promised to be when he first took his post. He went into the navy an uplifter, and uplift wasn't popular in the navy. But he found later that there was greater work to do than preaching pretty maxims to hard-boiled sailors—a navy was to be built. It was built. We have it on the seas today. Daniels had his share in building it and even partisans like the Tribune might admit as much.

BOXERS—AND OTHERS

Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier have been matched to fight for the heavyweight championship of the world. It is stated on authority that the total amount to be given the fighters will be nearly $500,000—and the bout is scheduled to go only ten or fifteen rounds!

Old lovers of prize-fighting will recall other ways were different. Twenty-odd years ago Joe Wolcott and "Billy" Smith fought twenty grueling rounds in the old Lenox Athletic Club, New York City, for a purse which gave only $1,300 to the winner, and only a few hundred to the loser. Yet that fight has gone down in ring history as one of the fiercest ever witnessed.

You fight fans, cast your mind over the exhibitions of other days, and recall the small sums for which great fights were staged: Sullivan, Hawkins, McAuliffe, McFadden, Maher, Choyinski, Lavigne and Erne, and a score of other gladiators were willing to battle for hours for a sum which today would not pay room rent for an aspirant to any world's title. And they were long fights in those days, too, not your short route affairs, in which the pompadours of your contestants are not even wilted. —Nashville Tennessean.

BALL MAGNATES TO GATHER NOV. 18TH

Magnates of the proposed North Alabama-Tennessee baseball league will meet in Sheffield, November 18, when it is hoped that the organization of the circuit may finally be perfected.

The new league now has four clubs assured for next season, one club believed to be sure of a berth and is in need of a sixth city to complete the circuit. Huntsville, Columbia, Sheffield and Albany-Decatur already have indicated their intention of having clubs next season. Athens, while not a certainty, is believed to be reasonably sure of having a team when play is called.

"They were eager for cash and I was able to pick up a splendid line of ready-to-wear at ridiculous prices."

HUNDREDS TURNED AWAY
LAST NIGHT AT MASONIC

The Billy Senior Stock Company, at opening night on Monday, at the Masonic, turned away hundreds unable to gain admittance. Standing room was at a premium when the well balanced company presented "The Adventures of Ann." Tonight "Piney Flats" will be given and no doubt a large audience will be present. The 10-piece orchestra was a decided feature and gave excellent musical entertainment during the performance. Street band parades are given each day at noon.

Some Albany People Fail to Realize the Seriousness of a Bad Back.

The constant aching of a bad back, The weariness, the tired feeling, The pains and aches of kidney ills May result seriously if neglected. Dangerous urinary troubles often follow.

An Albany citizen shows you what to do.

Mrs. H. Zinmeister, 715 Fourth avenue, Albany, says: "Some years ago I was in pretty bad shape, with kidney trouble. I had been over lifting and doing pretty heavy work generally and I think that was the cause of my complaint. My kidneys didn't act right and I couldn't rest comfortably. The joints of my fingers swelled and ached and the pains ran clear into my shoulders. I tried different remedies but got no relief until I used Doan's Kidney Pills which I bought at Dillehay Brothers' Drug Store. This medicine proved to be just what I needed and two boxes entirely rid me of my trouble. The cure has proven permanent and I cannot recommend Doan's too highly. 60c, at all dealers. Marshal's Charges
Are Hotly Denied

(International News Service)

PARIS, Nov. 9.—Andre Tardieu, former French high commissioner to the United States and a member of the French peace delegation, today denied Premier Clemenceau had opposed the appointment of Marshal Foch as generalissimo of the allied armies. His statement was called forth by the attack Marshal Foch delivered against the former premier in the Matin yesterday. He insisted that instead of opposing Foch, M. Clemenceau had always favored him for the supreme command.

Shorty gets an Earful!

Friday

Howdy from New Orleans, PETE!

Say, old clock, you've got the time—maybe you'd like to hear this one! As we were rolling into New Orleans yesterday one of the men in the club car was recounting his cigarette experiences; how he finally pulled a trick on his luck and got set right!

"Well, I've had my cigarette lesson," continued the traveler, "I went up and down the line on cigarettes until I got hold of Camels and got deep into their quality and mildness and delightful flavor! There never was a blend such as Camels combination of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos! I'll say it—Camels taught me what a cigarette should be and they'll teach any man who smokes!" Thinks I to myself—"Sic 'em, judge, every word you spill is a sentence!"

Now, Pete, that's the kind of Camel thanksgiving stuff you get North, East, South, West and through the middle! That's all as true as that little sheep will wag their tails!

I did some tall thinking as I browsed through the quaint old French quarter this evening—how universal the appeal of Camel cigarettes really is! Figure the travelling I've done and the people I've met—each city different from the other—AND Camels have been the ONE cigarette to be found everywhere—and the cigarette most smoked at each point! Pete, old backstop, it's wonderful the way smokers are sliding home to Camels!

Rob-My-Tism is a great pain killer. It relieves pain and soreness caused by Rheumatism. Neuralgia, Sprains, etc. (Adv)

ONE OF THE TEN THOUSAND
He came with us from inland to the shore,
A stranger, yet as if he had come home;
The moving phalanx with the plumes of foam—
He cried that he had known it all before!

Some words he spoke, that now are heard no more,
And, murmuring, vowed he would no further roam—
That now from him was due a hecatomb.

To Powers whom, late revealed, he must adore!
And prone he threw himself upon the sand,
And touched his forehead to its silvery silver sheen;

Then, rising, kissed an outstretched, playful hand,
As one who had a long-lost vision seen.

That, in regaining, he with song would greet,
Timed to the light wave breaking at his feet—

"Thalassa! Loved from my youth, though unknown!
Forested deep, in the bush of some valley,
Name my lips fondled, while dreaming alone;
But, when the Winds their legions would rally,
Heard I thy surges—saw billows up-thrown—
Dolphins at sport—and the foam-cleaving galley!

"Whence was my race? With whom did I sail?
Heard I the mystical Voice in the spar,
Cruising Proponit through sunshine or gale?
Came I to Ilion towers—from afar? hail,
Homesick, thy surges, afoam on the bar?

"Thalassa! Name that thy childhood did bear—
Coined by thyself in a lisping refrain:
Laughter of waves, as they incoming fare—
Bliss, as they break on the shingle again;
Follows a sighing, thinned into air—
Thalassa!—all to say over again!

"Where now, O masker, O protean one—
Thalassa! Thou, with thine infantine prattle,
Infinite smiling, a-play in the sun,
Trifler and gossip, carrying tattle into green coves . . . but, when all that is done,
Spinner of whirlpool—breaker of battle!

"Yet art thou changeless despite all thy changing;
Such to the first man—such to the last!
Many a shore, round which thou art ranging,
Glory and power like a mantle has cast.
Lost and forgotten, in Time's great estranging—
Thalassa!—one are thy present and past!"

HUGH AND JOSEPH TERRY CELEBRATE BIRTHDAYS TOGETHER

Master Hugh and Joseph Terry were joint hosts to a number of their young friends yesterday afternoon, entertaining at a birthday party at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Terry. The color scheme being carried out in pink and white. The large birthday cake elaborately frosted in white with seventeen pink candles eleven representing the age of Master Hugh and the remaining six for brother Joseph, decorated the center of the dining room table.

Many games, contests and music were enjoyed during the afternoon after which refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake and other good-laws were served to Fanny Bess Crow, Arline Thomas, Virginia Thomas, Sarah Wilkes, Arline Draper, Alice Thomas, Margaret Chow, Caroline Worley, Frances Wilkes, Gail Draper, Margaret Wilkes, Ellen Beauchamp, Helen Rauschenburg, and Eugene Chenault, Willard Proctor, William Wilkes, Lucian Bloodworth, Chas. Beauchamp, James Crow, Collier Crow, Chas. Arnold, Clifford Saunders, Johnnie Green, Harvey Wilkes and Frank Cook.

Many pretty and useful gifts were received by these two popular little hosts.

Mrs. Harry Wyatt has returned from Birmingham, where she underwent a successful operation.

Miss Lily Harris, of Leoma, Tenn., is visiting Miss Hortense Fisher, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Z. Bailey and son, T. Z. Jr., spent the week-end in Madison.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Perry, who have been visiting relatives in Huntsville, and New Market, returned home yesterday.

Mrs. Jno. T. Ashcraft, of Florence, enroute to W. M. U. Convention at Mobile, is the guest of Mrs. S. S. Broadus today.

Mr. W. R. Simpson is improving fast, after a recent illness.

W. H. Day left this morning for Gadsden, to attend the Methodist conference.

Dr. C. S. Chenault and Erskine Chenault are expected home today from Atlanta.

BEFORE you buy a can of Calumet you are certain of the greatest baking powder value—of the best baking results. Because there are so many definite proofs of its superiority—of its purity and reliability. It received highest awards at World's Pure Food Exposition, Chicago; Paris Exposition, Paris, France. PROOF that it is the best baking powder in the estimation of expert judges of baking powder quality. For thirty years it has been the favorite of millions of housewives. PROOF that it gives those millions the best of satisfaction.

CALUMET BAKING POWDER
RECEIVED HIGHEST AWARD

It contains only such ingredients as have been officially approved by U. S. Food Authorities. PROOF of its strict purity and excellence of materials.

It is made in the largest, most modern and sanitary baking powder plants in the world. PROOF that it must be better baking powder than one made under less favorable conditions.

You save when you buy it—moderate in price. You save when you use it—possesses more than ordinary leavening strength—therefore you use less. Gluten is the muscle building part of flour which is of great importance. To be sure you get it in your bakings use plain flour and good baking powder, (not self-rising flour).

Calumet Chocolate Cake Recipe
1 1/2 cup butter, 1/2 cup sugar, 3 teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 2 cups sifted flour, 1 cup milk, 2 eggs. Then mix in the regular way.

Stop Filing Your Teeth With Gritty Pastes

New Kind of Dentifrice Makes Tooth-Scratching Gum-Tearing Pastes Unnecessary.

In the grit in tooth-paste lies a very real danger. Coarse, abrasive substances not only are unable to penetrate to the crevices where decay and infection start, but scratch the teeth and tear the gums.

"With some of the much extolled preparations on the market it is quite easy by applying the brush to cut the tooth half through exposing the pulp inside of two hours!" This is what Dr. F. D. Miller writing in the Dental Cosmos says.

The problem of a suitable dentifrice has long puzzled the leading dentists of the country. Sufferers from pyorrhea, tender gums, premature decay, etc., have found it almost impossible to use the chalky pastes advertised as curative, cleansing and antiseptic.

Realizing the crying need for a real dentifrice, one that cleaned and sterilized, but at the same time was soothing and pleasant to use, one of the most prominent dental hygienists in the country set about studying the problem. After much careful experiment and investigation he developed an excellent new liquid-dentifrice which seems to have solved the problem.

This wonderful new preparation is called Steroline. It is now on the market, sold by all leading druggists and recommended by many dental surgeons.

Steroline cleans the teeth, and cleanses them thoroughly. Being a liquid it is able to penetrate where the coarse pastes cannot. And besides, its wonderful prophylactic qualities sterilize mouth, gums and throat, and leave them in an antiseptic condition. It is a preventive and curative for all the insidious diseases of the mouth.

Sufferers from decay, bad breath and tender gums, find immediate relief from the daily use of Steroline.

Get a bottle from your druggist today. Try it five days—you will be surprised to find how "cool and clean" your mouth feels after using it. If after five days you are not satisfied with Steroline, return the cardboard box to your druggist and your money will be cheerfully refunded.

SETTLEMENT OF CENSUS MIX-UP IS EXPECTED NOW

An early settlement of the census mix-up in Decatur is expected soon, following the visit here of two representatives of the census department at Washington. The 1920 figures for the city of Decatur have never been announced, owing to the fact that figures for the precinct and for the city were confused.

Belief has been expressed that the precinct's total was the total of the city, but it has been listed at Washington as for precinct one. It is known that sections of the precinct have not been enumerated and it is considered likely that a recount of the untouched sections, at least, will be started at an early date.

"ARMAGEDDON" THE WORLD'S LAST GREAT BATTLE
This is Evangelist Denslow's subject at the "Tabernacle" tonight. Many have wondered when it is to take place. Some thought the late war was truly the "Armageddon" of the Scriptures. This is an intensely interesting topic, one of great import and worthy of your study.

Sunday night Rev. Denslow more than measured up to the expectations of his friends in Albany. The tabernacle was filled. Many were surprised at the coziness of the interior. The tabernacle is well heated, well lighted and is decorated with paintings made by Artist Veeland, who was with Rev. Denslow while lecturing in Decatur.

In "The Sins of Good People" Rev. Denslow was impartial to none. From the Scriptures he plainly portrayed the follies of the hypocrite. The hypocrite in the church is responsible for many a man turning to infidelity. Everyone is invited to attend these meetings. There is room for all, with a cordial welcome.

Milk Toast Diet Too Much for Her
"I doctored for years with only temporary relief. My liver was very bad, after eating I would always have such a fullness in my stomach and my heart would palpitate. I could not eat milk toast without distressing me. Since taking a course of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, more than a year ago, I can eat anything my appetite desires." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. COTTON MARKET VERY IRREGULAR SELLING BY SPOT HOUSES ABSORBED BY WALL STREET INTERESTS.

(International News Service.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The cotton market was irregular at the opening today, initial prices showing an advance of 11 points to a decline of 3 points. Selling by spot houses early was absorbed by Wall street interests and professionals, who were buying in prospects of a general squeeze in the South within the next day or two. The market thus acted fairly steady after the opening, but was nervous. At the end of the first 20 minutes, trading in the market had changed materially from initial levels and ruled about 15 to 20 points under last night's close.
